“Pastoral Piece”

The last couple of months have presented our congregation with many challenges.

It seems almost everyone has been fighting an upper respiratory condition which seems to know no end. While others have been dealing with recovering from surgery or coping with even more serious illnesses. Whether we are aware of it or not, there are always those among us who are dealing with loss in whatever form it takes.

The Weston Christian Church, united as a body of believers, has risen to meet the needs of those suffering within the congregation as well as reaching out to those who have not joined us yet. I have watched members mobilizing to organize outreach such as food or visits. There have been calls and e-mails expressing concern and offering assistance. There have been cards and words of encouragement sent. Perhaps most importantly, there has been a continual offering of prayer for intercession for all who are in need.

I am filled with gratitude, humility and thanks for I have witnessed THE CHURCH, we the believers, literally becoming the hands and feet of Christ. Reaching out, loving and ministering to the needs of others. I truly believe that Weston Christian Church is doing exactly what Christ intended for us to do.

God Bless You All.

Something to reflect on...

JUST FOR TODAY...

1. Just for Today, I will try to live through this day only, and not tackle my whole life-problem at once. I can do some things for twelve hours that would appall me if I felt I had to keep them up for a lifetime.
2. Just for Today, I will be Happy. This assumes that what Abraham Lincoln said is true, that "most folks are about as happy as they make up their minds to be." Happiness is from Within; it is not a matter of Externals.
3. Just for Today, I will Adjust myself to what Is, and not try to Adjust everything to my own desires. I will take my family, my business, and my luck as they come, and fit myself to them.
4. Just for Today, I will take care of my Body. I will exercise it, care for it, and nourish it, and not abuse it nor neglect it; so that it will be a perfect machine for my will.
5. Just for Today, I will try to strengthen my mind, I will study. I will learn something useful, I will not be a mental loafer all day. I will read something that requires effort, thought and concentration.
6. Just for Today, I will exercise my Soul. In three ways, to wit:
 - (a) I will do somebody a good turn and not get found out. If anybody knows of it, it will not count.
 - (b) I will do at least two things I don't want to do, as William James suggests just for exercise.
 - (c) I will not show any one that my feelings are hurt. They may be hurt, but Today I will not show it.
7. Just for Today, I will be agreeable. I will look as well as I can, dress as becomingly as possible, talk low, act courteously, be liberal with flattery, criticize not one bit nor find fault with anything, and not try to regulate nor improve anybody.
8. Just for Today, I will have a Program. I will write down just what I expect to do every hour. I may not follow it exactly, but I'll have it. It will save me from the two pests - Hurry and Indecision.
9. Just for Today, I will have a quiet half hour, all by myself, and relax. During this half hour, some time, I will think of God, so as to get a little more perspective to my life.
10. Just for Today, I will be Unafraid. Especially I will not be afraid to be Happy, to enjoy what is Beautiful, to love and to believe that those I love love me.
